Instructions No. 2902

Difficulty: Advanced

Working time: 3 Hours 30 Minutes

The reindeer envelope is the perfect companion for lovely lines at Christmas, as voucher packaging and also for small gifts. Of course, our reindeer can not only be given away at Christmas - who can resist such cute mail? Sew this cute envelope in reindeer look easily with our instructions and free templates.

Place a Vlieseline antler piece between each of two craft felt antler pieces and iron them together. Make sure you put a cloth or fabric in between when ironing felting. Sew the edges with the zigzag stitch here too.

Envelope:

Draw a rectangle measuring 45 cm high x 25 cm wide on both fabrics and on the fleece linen. Note that you will need to mark a seam allowance on the fabrics later. Therefore, leave enough space at the edges of the fabric.

Lay the fabric in front of you with the short side facing you. Draw a centre line vertically along the long sides. Mark the points on the upper short side, starting from the centre line 2 cm to the left and 2 cm to the right. On the centre line, mark the point at 6 cm. Draw a horizontal line from this point. Connect the ends of the line with the two points at the top of the line. Now you can see the envelope flap. Mark the 1cm seam allowance on the fabrics and cut everything.

On the motif fabric draw a horizontal line at 17 cm and from this line draw a horizontal line at 34 cm. It's best to do this with a Strich-Ex pen, because it can be wiped away later with a little water.

Place the motif fabric blank on the table with the right side facing up. First pin the front piece to the fabric and sew it on with the zigzag stitch. Repeat the same with the nose. Then you can sew on the antlers at the point marked at 34 cm and the ears.
